D. Alcohol/Substance Abuse

No employee shall use, possess, be under the influence of, or sell alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs on the library grounds or during the course of employment. The Naples Library encourages employees with substance-abuse problems to seek treatment. Seeking treatment for dependency will not, however, avoid disciplinary action.

E. Staff Conduct

Certain standards of behavior are required for continued employment.

1. Personal Appearance

a. The personal appearance of employees shall be one that emanates pride and professionalism to correspond with the position held. Extremes of any sort should be avoided. During business hours, staff are expected to present a clean, neat appearance. Clothing should be clean and cared for. Nothing should be worn that has sexual innuendos, political messages, obscene language, etc. It is impossible to cover all contingencies of dress in a manual, so questionable attire should be cleared in advance with the Director/Manager.

2. Tidiness

. Each employee is responsible for cleaning up after him/herself at all times in the library (both in the work space and in the staff room/kitchen).

3. Reading

. Personal reading is not to be done on library time.
a. Professional reading must never be allowed to interfere with helping patrons, and should be kept to a minimum when at a public service desk.

4. Phone Calls

. Telephones are provided for business purposes.
a. Personal calls should be placed during break times.

- b. Incoming personal calls should be avoided unless there is an immediate family concern, and should be kept as short as possible (3 minutes or less).
- c. Personal calls are to be taken away from the public's view.
- d. Use of personal cell phone devices must be kept to a minimum.
 - 1. These devices should not be used when working behind the desk, dealing with a patron, and only when necessary.
 - 2. Use of cell phones for texting is also not appropriate while stationed at a public desk.

5. Punctuality

- . Each staff member is expected to be at his/her post and working at the assigned time.
- a. If a staff member is going to be late, the library must be notified as soon as possible.
- b. Repeated instances of tardiness will result in possible disciplinary action.

6. Conversations

- . Any conversation that is not concerned with library business is to be kept to a minimum. This includes conversation with other staff members and/or patrons.
- a. At no time is a patron to be kept waiting while an employee finishes a personal conversation.
- b. Staff is not to hold separate conversations with others while helping patrons.
- c. Staff must pay attention to the patron on whom they are waiting.
- d. Long conversations with patrons that are of a personal nature should be curtailed.

7. Eating, Drinking and Smoking

8. Breaks

- . One 15-minute break is allowed for each 4-hour work period.
- a. Breaks may not be used to come in late or leave work early. They are designed to allow staff to get away from the eye of the public to relax.

9. Attitude

- . Attitudes are the most important facet of each employee's presentation of library service to the public. As such, personal problems and feelings must be kept out of the library.
- a. We must be courteous, tactful, and pleasant at all times; treating the most unpleasant patrons as well as we treat our most pleasant ones.
- b. No staff member is expected to take abuse from patrons or other staff. Refer upset patrons to the director.

F. Computer/Phone/Software Use and Security

Library equipment including computer hardware and software are valuable assets. They should generally be used for library business only, with the exceptions noted below. Employees may not copy or use library purchased/leased software contrary to the provisions of any license agreement. Employees should follow computer maintenance, software updating procedures, and caution in opening email in order to avoid computer viruses which have the potential to cause damage to library and system computer networks.

The library provides Internet access (including email) to its employees to assist and facilitate business communications and work-related research. These services are for legitimate business use only in the course of an employee's assigned duties, with the exception that employees may access the Internet for non-business use on personal time, so long as all other provisions of this policy are followed. All materials, information and software created, transmitted, downloaded or stored on the library's computer system are the property of the library and may be accessed by authorized personnel.

Inappropriate computer use includes: transmitting obscene, harassing, offensive or unprofessional messages; accessing any site that is sexually or racially offensive or discriminatory; displaying, downloading or distributing any sexually explicit material; transmitting any confidential or proprietary library information.

The library reserves the right to monitor employee use of the e-mail system or the Internet at any time. Employees should not consider their Internet usage or e-mail communications to be private when using staff computers, software or email accounts. Personal passwords are not an assurance of confidentiality, and the Internet itself is not secure.

Any software or other material downloaded into the library's computers may be used only in ways consistent with the licenses and copyrights of the vendors, authors or owners of the material. Prior written authorization from the Director/Manager or Department Head is required before introducing any unauthorized software into the library's computer system.

Employees should limit time used for personal phone calls, e-mails, texts, and other communication time as short as possible. The library recognizes the need for some personal communication, but employees will keep such communication to an as needed basis.

G. Dress Code

The Library enjoys an excellent reputation in the Naples area. While there are many reasons for this reputation, one of the ways to help maintain it is for all staff to present a professional image to the public. It is important that the public have confidence in the staff and the staff members have confidence/pride in themselves when transacting library business. To help present this image and foster public confidence, staff members must dress appropriately for their work assignment. Supervisors will discuss inappropriate dress with individual staff members.

Guidelines

Staff will wear clean and well-maintained business casual attire. Because of varied work assignments and working conditions, it is not practical to establish specific and absolute criteria as to what is or is not appropriate dress. Some activities, such as cleaning days, outside activities, or craft projects, may call for variations from the dress code. Staff should not wear shorts, midriff tops, or flip flops.

The Director/Manager has the authority to determine whether particular outfits are inappropriate for the library.

H. Immigration Law Compliance

Only citizens of the United States and those aliens legally authorized to work within the United States are eligible for employment. The Naples Library does not discriminate on the basis of citizenship or national origin. In compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, each new employee, as a condition of employment, must complete the Employment Eligibility Verification Form I-9 and present documentation establishing identity & employment eligibility. Former employees who are rehired must also complete the form if they have not done so within the past three years, or if their previous I-9 is no longer retained or valid.

I. Performance Expectations

All employees are required to familiarize themselves with and follow library policies.

1. All employees will have a personnel file maintained by the Director/Manager. While general access is restricted, employees do have access to their own file and should contact the Director/Manager.
2. All employees are responsible for notifying the Director/Manager of any changes in personnel data, including name changes, address, phone number, emergency contact information, etc.
3. All employee applications are relied upon for accuracy. Any misinformation may lead to termination. Applications will be kept in the personnel file of those hired. Applicants not hired will have their applications held for six months.
4. Only the Director/Manager may acknowledge dates of employment, position, and salary and wage information regarding employees for the purposes of credit checks, etc. Only the Director/Manager is authorized to answer requests for personal references and to respond to court orders.
5. New employees are given an 8-week probationary period which is designed as an opportunity to demonstrate ability to achieve satisfactory performance levels on the job, and to determine if the position meets expectations.
6. The orientation/training of new employees is to be conducted by selected staff and begins with time for completion of required paperwork.
7. There are often opportunities for in-service training. In addition, training offered by the Pioneer Library System or Rochester

Regional Library Council and like agencies are offered to all based on budget concerns and staffing availability for the library. Requests for attendance at training outside the library should be given to the Director/Manager. If staff coverage is available, all employees are encouraged to attend continuing education classes and training.

8. While funding is available for mileage and conference expenses, all expenses must be approved by the Director/Manager prior to being issued a guarantee of payment. Carpooling is always encouraged. Reimbursement requests should be presented for payment within 30 days with receipts. Support of attendance at conferences will be based on the available funds. Registration fees that are reimbursed will be based on early registration rates.
9. Staff members with an interest in joining professional organizations (NYLA, NYSLAA and ALA) are encouraged to do so while the library will not guarantee reimbursement of memberships. Budgeted monies for membership reimbursement will be determined by funds available at the discretion of the Director/Manager.
10. Library staff are offered the benefit of borrowing materials fine free and purchasing materials through the library. These privileges can be revoked by the Director/Manager.
11. While official job titles are assigned by Ontario County Civil Service, the tasks performed internally may not equal other staff with the same title. For the purpose of this policy, special circumstances of tasks and responsibility for a specific position will be outlined in additional job descriptions that are position specific and beyond those titles assigned by Ontario County Civil Service.
12. Staff will be evaluated on an on-going basis and formally evaluated each year. The Director/Manager shall be evaluated by the Board of Trustees. The Director/Manager shall determine the evaluation procedure for all staff members.

J. Performance Evaluation/Discipline/Grievance

3. Procedures for grievances, discipline and termination are provided in NYS Civil Service Law sections 75 and 76.
 4. Reduction in Force
- . Staff may be laid off if there is a significant reduction of funds or changes in the structure or organization of the library.

- a. All employees to be laid off will be given at least two weeks' notice before the effective termination date.
- b. As conditions permit, staff that have been laid off because of funding or changes in structure may have the opportunity to reapply for a position.

K. Employment Termination

Below are examples of some of the most common circumstances of termination of employment.

1. Resignation - Voluntary termination of employment initiated by the employee. An employee resignation may be submitted in writing to the Director/Manager two weeks prior to the final working date. The Director/Manager must submit a letter to the President of the Board of Trustees 4 weeks in advance. No unused vacation time will be compensated for. If an employee misses three consecutive scheduled work days without notifying the library, then the library may assume that the employee has voluntarily resigned his/her position.
2. Dismissal - Involuntary termination of employment initiated by the employer. An employee whose performance, attitude, or personal philosophy of library service does not meet the standards, requirements, and philosophy of the library will be warned of the inadequacy of his or her performance verbally and in written form by the Director/Manager. Procedures outlined by Ontario County Civil Service will be adhered to when dismissing personnel. Dismissed Personnel, as well as any other disciplined personnel, are entitled to a hearing if they request one. If a hearing is requested, it will be presided by a member of the Naples Library Board of Trustees. Employee discipline will be carried out in accordance with New York State Civil Service Law. Nothing will preclude an employee from resigning rather than facing disciplinary charges.
3. Exit Interview- Employees are encouraged, but not required, to participate in an exit interview with a board member(s).

L. Political Activity

Employees have exactly the same rights as any other citizen to join political organizations and participate in political activities, as long as they maintain a clear separation between their official responsibilities and their political affiliations. Employees are prohibited from engaging in political activities while performing their public duties and from using library time, supplies or equipment in any political activity. Any violation of this policy must be reported to the Director/Manager or the Library's attorney.

Restricting unauthorized visitors helps maintain safety standards, protects against theft, ensures the security of equipment, protects confidential information, safeguards employee welfare, and avoids potential distractions and disturbances. Guests may not interfere with a staff member's job responsibilities. It is the employee's duty to determine when s/he has spent too much time with a friend or relative, and to disengage from the person. Guests should not be in non-public areas unless approved by the Director/Manager.
